

Thesis/Capstone Reader Form

The purpose of this form is to verify that your reader has read and approved the general terms of your thesis/capstone proposal and agreed to serve as your reader. Please have your reader fill out and sign this document, then email it to Leigh Brown at lb663@columbia.edu by Wednesday, December 17, 2025.

Student's Name: _____

Student's UNI: _____

Proposal Title: _____

Reader Information

Reader's Name: _____

Reader's Email: _____

I agree to serve as reader and have read and approved the general terms of the proposal. I have read the Thesis/Capstone Reader Responsibilities and filled out the Reader Questionnaire attached to this form.

Reader's Signature _____ Date _____

Thesis/Capstone Reader Responsibilities

The minimum required responsibility of readers is to read the penultimate draft of the student's thesis or capstone project and attend their 1-hour jury review in April. Additional engagement is at the discretion of the reader. Readers must be appointed by GSAPP to officially serve as a reader. Readers may not do work pro bono. Readers are paid $300. The appointment start date is March 1, 2026.

Reader Questionnaire

There are important restrictions regarding reader appointment and compensation. Please complete the questionnaire below to help us determine your eligibility to serve as a reader at Columbia GSAPP. Until confirmed by the GSAPP Dean's Office, readers should not begin work.

1. Are you a currently appointed Columbia University faculty? Please note: faculty who have not worked at the University recently, are considered as an outside reader. Barnard or Teachers College faculty cannot be readers.

☐ Yes, I am a full-time faculty

☐ Yes, I am an adjunct faculty

☐ Yes, I am a researcher. If you are a researcher at the University—even if you serve as faculty—we may require additional information before confirming your eligibility.

☐ No, please specify your affiliation _____

2. If Yes, your Department is GSAPP ☐ Other _____

3. If No, please answer the following questions:

- a. Are you a United State citizen or do you have permission to work in the United States? Only US Citizens or those with such permission are eligible to be readers.

☐ Yes

☐ No

- b. Are you currently residing in the United States? Persons not residing in the US during their appointment are not eligible to be readers.

☐ Yes

☐ No

- c. Are you available to complete a Form by visiting one of the University's I-9 centers before December 17, 2025? Readers based outside the NYC area may visit one of the I-9 Anywhere centers located throughout the country. See I-9 instructions for readers. If you do not complete the I-9 by December 17, 2025, you are not eligible to serve as a reader.

☐ Yes

☐ No